3. General Processing Obligations of Supplier: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> i. Supplier shall direct Subprocessor to process Personal Data only on documented instructions of Customer as set out in the Principal Agreement, and not for any other purpose, or in any other manner, unless specifically instructed by Customer in writing to do so, or as required by the GDPR. In the event that Supplier is made aware of a requirement under the Data Protection Laws that Personal Data be processed for any other purpose or in any other manner, Supplier shall inform Customer of that legal requirement before directing Subprocessor to process Personal Data pursuant to that requirement, unless the law prohibits such information on important grounds of public interest. ii. Supplier shall ensure that its employees, agents and/or subprocessors authorised to process Personal Data have committed themselves to confidentiality. iii. Supplier shall immediately notify Customer if, in its opinion, an instruction from Customer on the processing of Personal Data infringes the Data Protection Laws. Supplier, shall however, not be obliged to actively monitor such instructions for infringements of the Data Protection Laws.
4. Data Security Supplier shall implement appropriate technical and organisational measures to safeguard Personal Data, which shall meet the requirements of the GDPR (Article 32). Customer acknowledges and agrees that it has knowledge of and has reviewed these measures and is responsible for ensuring that they provide an appropriate level of protection to the risks of Personal Data to be processed. Supplier may update or modify these measures from time to time provided that such updates or modifications do not result in any material degradation of the security of Personal Data.
5. Subprocessing Supplier shall be permitted to appoint a subprocessor to process Personal Data provided that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> i. Supplier enters into a written contract with the subprocessor on the same terms as those set out in this Addendum; ii. Supplier shall inform Customer of any intended changes concerning the addition or replacement of any subprocessor and give Customer the opportunity to object to such changes; and iii. where a subprocessor fails to fulfil its data protection obligations, Supplier shall remain fully liable to Customer for the performance of the subprocessor's obligations.
6. Data Subject Requests Taking into account the nature of the processing, Supplier shall provide commercially reasonable assistance to Customer by appropriate technical and organisational measures, insofar as this is possible, for the fulfilment of Customer's obligation to respond to a request from a Data Subject to exercise the Data Subject's right of access, right to rectification, restriction of processing, erasure, data portability, object to the processing or his/her rights not

to be subject to an automated individual decision making. To the extent legally permitted, Customer shall be responsible for any costs arising from Supplier's provision of such assistance.
7. Personal Data Breach i. Supplier shall notify Customer without undue delay after becoming aware of a Personal Data Breach and provide commercially reasonable assistance to Customer in connection with its third party notification and communication obligations under the GDPR, taking into account the nature of the Personal Data processing and the information available to Supplier. To the extent legally permitted, Customer shall be responsible for any costs arising from Supplier's provision of such assistance. ii. Customer acknowledges and agrees that it is solely responsible for the fulfillment of any third party notification and communication obligations under the GDPR.
8. Data Protection Impact Assessments Supplier shall provide commercially reasonable assistance to Customer in connection with its obligations under the GDPR to carry out a data protection impact assessment (and, where required by the Data Protection Laws, consulting with the relevant Supervisory Authority in respect of any such data protection impact assessment). To the extent legally permitted, Customer shall be responsible for any costs arising from Supplier's provision of such assistance.
9. Audit i. Supplier shall make available to Customer all information necessary to demonstrate compliance with the obligations set out in this Addendum. ii. Where Customer requests to conduct an audit, or an inspection, Supplier shall use an external auditor to demonstrate its compliance with the obligations set out in this Addendum. Such audit or inspection shall be carried out by a third party auditor at the selection and expense of Supplier. A summary of the auditor's report shall be provided to Customer upon Customer's written request.
10. Return or Deletion of Personal Data At the choice of Customer, Supplier shall delete or return, or direct Subprocessor to delete or return all Personal Data to Customer after the end of the provision of services relating to Personal Data, and delete or direct Subprocessor to delete existing copies of Personal Data unless the Data Protection Laws requires storage of Personal Data by Supplier.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the signatory for each Party has duly executed this Agreement on the date hereof and certifies that he/she has the authority to bind the Party on behalf of whom he/she has signed.
