HAMILTON, N.J. – June 15, 2020 – Today, Sparta Systems, Inc., the leading provider of quality management solutions for life sciences, announced that American Regent, Inc., a top-10 injectable manufacturer, has chosen TrackWise Digital® as its next generation cloud platform for manufacturing, clinical, and supplier management.

American Regent has been a TrackWise® software customer since 2014. "We've always been proud of our reputation and standards for high quality," said Nick Walp, American Regent Vice President, Quality Affairs. "With the upgrade to TrackWise Digital, we can advance our mission of providing Excellence in Quality within our organization and improve traceability throughout our supply chain."

"Sparta is proud to support American Regent on their digital journey. As they scale their business, TrackWise Digital will provide excellent visibility of the full quality landscape from clinical to manufacturing," said Dana Jones, CEO, Sparta Systems.
